“CONTACT” of Mercer County Helping Seniors Who Live Alone Telephone Reassurance Service

This program provides a free daily outreach service to senior citizens who live alone. REASSURANCE Volunteers phone clients once each day to check on their well-being. Any senior citizen (60+) who lives alone in Mercer County is eligible for this free service.

How does TELEPHONE REASSURANCE work?

- A senior citizen, wanting to become a client of REASSURANCE, calls the CONTACT business office to sign up for the program at (609) 883-2880
- Staff meet with the Client, explain the program and obtain important information.
- A REASSURANCE volunteer who has gone through training, is paired with each client and is responsible for calling the client daily at a prearranged time that is agreeable to both. The purpose of the call is simply to check on the well-being of the client and should take no more than five minutes. If the client does not answer, the volunteer telephones for help.

What does CONTACT do?

- Outreach service to senior citizens who live alone
- A referral and information service
- A daily Reassurance call for seniors in Mercer County

The CONTACT volunteers offer comfort, referrals, crisis intervention and suicide prevention support with a focus on personal safety. CONTACT is a safe place to talk, chat or text.

Work is the Goal

The Work First New Jersey program:

- Works to end welfare dependency by limiting assistance to 60 months and offering you the tools to find a job. Works to help children by helping you get child support payments to care for your dependent children.
- Works toward self-sufficiency by allowing you to keep more of your paycheck when you get a job or to close your case and receive a work supplement.
- Works to keep you on the job by helping with child care, health care, transportation and other support services, if needed.
